NEW BOOKS.

JUST Published, and for sale at this Office, new editions of the following works:

RAYNER'S MANUAL.

This excellent publication, contains prayers and hymns, adapted to various public and private occasions. As a manual for religious wor slip, it has been highly commended by our denominational papers, and recommended as worthy of a place in every family.

WILLIAMSON'S ARGUMENT FOR CHRISTIANITY.

As an able and popular argument in defence of the fundamntal truths of our holy religion, this is not exceeded by any work that is extant. It has done more than any other work that has ever been published, to arrest the swelling tides of infidelity, and we would that the truths it embodies might be read and pondered by every sceptic in the land. Our friends may rest assured that they cannot do our cause a bester service, than to give this work an extensive circulation.

THE FRIENDLESS.

This work, written by a lady, contains a very interesting and instructive narrative, and is designed particularly for the young. It forms a valuable addition to our Sunday School Library books.

Orders for the above works, which will be sold on the lowest

William S. Balch, Otis A. Skinner, and S. C. Bulkeley.

A new volume of this paper will be commenced on the 11th of November. It will be published as heretofore, on a super royal sheet, in folio form. The paper will be of good quality, strong and white, and the mechanical execution will be equal to that of any other denomina-

It will be devoted to the defence and illustration of Universalism; Morality, Literature, and Science; to questions of Reform and Progress, and General Intelligence. It will contain Sermons, Essays, Scripture Expositions, Reviews of Books, interesting Moral Stories, Juvenile Pieces, Denominational and General News.

Besides the productions of the Editors, it will contain articles from our best writers. Regular Correspondents, in different parts of the country, have been engaged to furnish the eurliest information touching tee interests of our cause.

New-York is the Commercial Emporium of the Union, and it affords peculiar facilities for the publication of a Universalist paper; and we hope to make ours worthy of an extensive patronage. If past experience and untiring perseverance will enable us to do so, our friends may depend on receiving one equal to any in the Denomination.

We respectfully ask the aid and co-operation of all our present patrons, and all who wish well to our success, promising, on our part, to do every thing in our power to render the Messenger an acceptable and useful
